

AFCC 59TH ANNUAL CONFERENCE

Wednesday, February 2, 2022

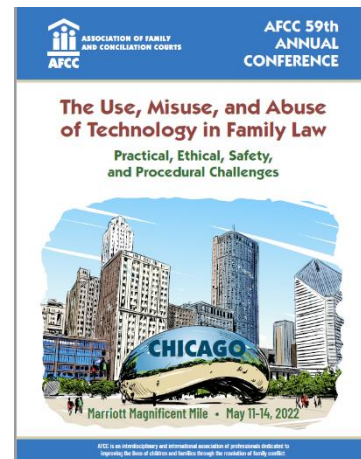

Improving the lives of children and families through the resolution of family conflict

Dear Massimo,

Are you thinking about/hoping/planning to come to AFCC's 59th Annual Conference, May 11-14, 2022, in Chicago? We have all been waiting to get back together for an in-person event, but confirming plans can be difficult in these uncertain times.

To make your decision easier, AFCC is waiving all cancellation fees for the conference for any health and safety-related issues. Just provide notice in writing to AFCC at afcc@afccnet.org by Monday, May 9, 2022. You can register for the conference today and make a hotel reservation knowing that your fees are fully refundable.

The Chicago Marriott Downtown on the Magnificent Mile allows guests in the AFCC block to modify or cancel reservation until five days before the conference begins. (Learn more.) Many airlines are also offering refundable fares, and most (if not all) are currently offering full credit with no change or cancellation fees.

AFCC will be implementing health and safety protocols that include proof of vaccination or a negative Covid test within 72 hours of the conference. Depending on circumstances at the time of the conference, we anticipate requiring masks when participants are not eating or drinking. These protocols were used at our fall conference in November 2021 with great success.

The conference, The Use, Misuse, and Abuse of Technology in Family Law, will feature a look at artificial intelligence and parenting plans, the impact of technology, and online dispute resolution, along with many popular topics including high-conflict cases, parental alienation, intimate partner violence, resist-refuse dynamics, mediation, parenting coordination, and more. Register today to get the early-bird rate!

We encourage you to register and make your hotel reservations early. Please know that AFCC will do everything possible to assure a comfortable, safe, and healthy experience for all.
