Virtual Conference September 21-24, 2021

In-person networking and consultation
September 23-24, 2021 in Washington, DC

AFCC and AAML members will meet online and in person for an advanced program featuring many of the family law community's leading experts. Participants will learn new practice skills, explore the latest research, participate in consultation groups, and discuss the latest changes in practice.

For those interested in attending, a concurrent in-person networking and consultation program will take place at the Capital Hilton Hotel in Washington, DC. The in-person program will take place Thursday, September 23 and Friday, September 24 and include social functions, consultation opportunities, and informal networking.

This hybrid conference will feature the access and convenience of a virtual conference with an in-person twist to enhance the experience for those who feel comfortable traveling and gathering together.

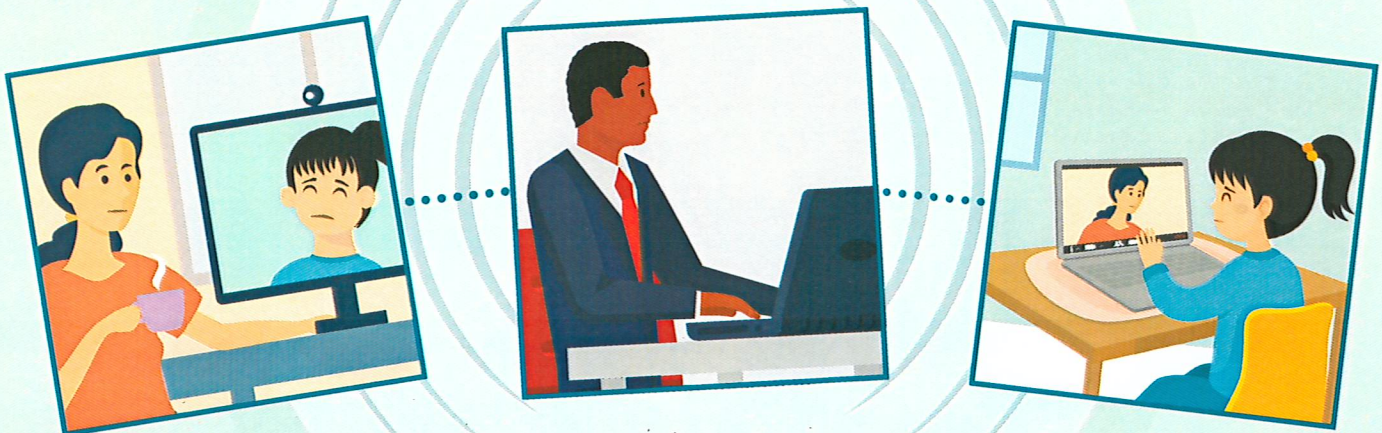

- All sessions will be delivered virtually.
- A break in the programming on September 23, 2021 allows time to travel to Washington, DC.
- Several in-person activities will take place at the Capital Hilton on Thursday and Friday for those who wish to experience the networking and consultation this conference has to offer.
- Dedicated meeting space at the Capital Hilton will be available on September 23-24 for those who wish to view programs together.

Registrants will have full access to session recordings, which offers flexibility that an in-person conference does not afford. However you work the AFCC-AAML Conference into your schedule, you'll enjoy informative sessions from leading family law professionals. Join us!

Unmuting the Voices of Children and Families: Can You Hear Me Now?

CINCINNATI, OHIO

November 11-13, 2021 • Hilton Cincinnati Netherland Plaza

Recent shelter-in-place policies, children attending school virtually, and the changes in family law services during the pandemic have impacted the voices of children and family members, resulting in some not being heard. As we learn from the experiences of the pandemic, it is important to take stock of the circumstances, including remote processes, or high conflict cases, that can result in muting the voices of family members. How can professionals ensure that family members have a say in their future? What are the traps to avoid that result in silencing children? This conference will highlight innovations and best practices in engaging families in resolving their disputes, regardless of context.

Topics include:

- Transgender Children and Child Custody: Research and Practice
- Online Parenting Programs: What Does the Evidence Show?
- Predictors and Outcomes of Mediation for Parents Reporting High Intimate Partner Violence
- How Do You Know if A Child is Telling the Truth?
- No Cent Left Behind: Navigating Parenthood as a Single Wage Earner
- The Pandemic is Over: Now What?
- Custody Evaluations: Are Quality and Affordability in Conflict?
- Substance Use and Parenting: Best Practices for Family Court Practitioners
- Hearing the Voice of the LGBTQ+ Child
