

WEEKLY UPDATE

Thursday, May 12, 2022

Dear {First Name},

All AFCC members enjoy several benefits, like reduced prices to attend AFCC educational programming, access to the AFCC online searchable directory, and the webinar archive.

For a full list of member benefits, visit the Member Benefits page of the AFCC website. If you take advantage of the opportunities to learn with AFCC by enrolling for conferences, training programs, and webinars at member prices, your AFCC membership will more than pay for itself.

Learn more about Family Court Review

Some members have told us that one benefit in particular is worth the price of admission: Family Court Review (FCR) is AFCC's quarterly journal. Considered the leading interdisciplinary academic and research journal for family law professionals, FCR is published in cooperation with the Center for Children, Families and the Law at Hofstra University School of Law.

Family Court Review Fun Facts

- All members with an Individual or Institutional Membership receive both print and digital subscriptions to Family Court Review.
- All members can access the FCR Archives, which include all issues of the journal, dating back to its inception in 1963!
- The Editor-in-Chief is Barbara A. Babb, MS, JS, Emerita Professor at the Sayra and Neil Meyerhoff Center for Families, Children and the Courts (CFCC) at the University of Baltimore School of Law.
- FCR's Social Science Editor is Marsha Kline Pruett, PhD, ABPP, who teaches at the Smith College School for Social Work. Marsha is a former President of AFCC.
- The Faculty Administrative Editor of Family Court Review is Robert Cannon. Rob is Managing Attorney and Project Director, Center for Children, Families and the Law at Maurice A. Deane School of Law at Hofstra University.

- Non-members can read a sample issue of Family Court Review. The current available issue is from January 2020. Read it here.
- Family Court Review frequently publishes special issues. One recent special issue was the basis for the Special Webinar Series on Parent-Child Contact Problems. You can read the articles in the April 2020 issue (member login required) and members can access the webinar recordings here for no additional cost. (Access to webinar archives is another member benefit!)

Visit the Family Court Review Archives to make the most of your member benefits!

Has your membership lapsed? Let this serve as a reason to keep it current, so you can stay informed and better serve the families who count on you. Join or renew now!

Thank you for being an AFCC member!

