Improving the lives of children and families
through the resolution of family conflict

Dear Massimo,

In just two months, AFCC will present its Fall Conference. This conference features a judicial officer track, four full-day pre-conference institutes, two plenary sessions, 29 workshops, up to 16.5 hours of continuing education credit, and several opportunities to connect with your colleagues. Don't miss it!

At this time, we hope to continue with our existing plans to hold this conference in person.

As new information surfaces, AFCC will be guided by science, recommendations from the Centers for Disease Control, and any local regulations. AFCC will keep you informed of any changes as they arise.
