AFCC 60th Anniversary Conference

Hi Massimo,

The questions may have changed, but the challenges remain. For six decades, AFCC members have been asking the difficult questions, and delivering quality information and research regarding the most complex issues for parents and children experiencing separation and divorce. Join us as we celebrate 60 years of AFCC in the city where it all began. Register now!

The Fundamentals of Conducting Parenting Plan Evaluations

March 13-16, and March 20-22, 2023

*The pre-conference institute, Advanced Training in Parenting Plan Evaluations, at the 60th Anniversary Conference will be a continuation of this online training program taking place in March!

This program will incorporate a complete overview of the parenting plan evaluation process; including the definition and roles of the parenting plan evaluator; as well as, the specifics of the evaluation process, including interviewing, recordkeeping, use of technology, and best practices for report writing and testifying.

Participants will learn the difference between a forensic role and a clinical role, how to review court orders and determine what information should be obtained, strategies for interviewing adults and children, how to assess co-parenting issues, how to develop and test multiple hypotheses, and how to craft recommendations.

Training Team:

- Chioma Ajoku, JD, PhD, ABPP
